

GE Energy Financial Services Associate Rotational Program

Program Summary

- Comprehensive rotational program allows participants to gain industry experience across the energy spectrum through investments in oil & gas, renewables, power generation and more
- Principal investing experience in a buy-side, structured finance role
- Emphasis on credit and risk analysis, valuation and portfolio management
- In-house training covering financial modeling, accounting, and industry overviews

Program Benefits

- World-class energy finance & leadership training
- Exposure to business and industry leaders
- Opportunity to tackle complex deals
- Gain deep industry knowledge and draw on GE Company expertise
- Opportunity to work across debt and equity products and a number of business segments
- Be part of a culture that recognizes and rewards excellence

Convenient Location

- 800 Long Ridge Road, Stamford, CT
- GE shuttle from Stamford train station
- EFS office is 1 hour drive from Midtown Manhattan
- ~65% Associates commute from NYC

Working Facilities - Stamford

- Open, collaborative work environment with on-site gym & jogging trails
- Environmentally Conscious: LEED - Gold Certified building, bike racks, & priority parking for hybrid vehicles

Learn More

- <http://www.geenergyfinancialservices.com>
- Full time recruiting for second year MBA students occurs September through November
- Internship recruiting for first year MBA students occurs January through February

Apply

- www.gecareers.com/campusinterview, enter keyword "Associate," select "GE Capital" from the Business dropdown.